Principal's Message

Right Communication is a Skill ...learn it , practice it.....

Dear All,

Improper communication or lack of awareness always leads to severe differences among people.

Let's decipher what exactly communication is. During my Post Graduation in IT, it was stated that communication between two computers is based on Protocols which when described explained a lot about good communication and not so good between devices which lead to either smooth run or abruption in working. Same rules apply in human to human communication also. If we follow the correct protocols, the result is always favorable like when one is talking, the other person should listen or else communication will be futile. The other aspect regarding communication is the right content forwarded to the right destination. One should gather all the information regarding the correct destination where the communication will be beneficial and leading to positive solutions. For which awareness of the entire system is essential. Communication ,be it in writing or verbal always should target at achieving just one goal and that is understanding and finding right solution with right information for issues.

Fortunately knowingly or unknowingly we are getting dependent on the information shared on social media where not necessarily every thing is correct. You will be surprised to know that even Wikipedia, due to its option that anyone can add on the information on it, is not completely reliable on net. I am sure you all must have noticed fake news being circulated on WhatsApp , Facebook etc to misguide people and get them to do negative things.

The virtual world is here to stay but what to take and rely on is completely on individual self. Don't be a victim of someone's aggression or disappointment for certain things as each individual has his/her own capacity to perceive instances. Be rational and practical regarding values in the virtual world and use it with caution.

Be alert be cautious !!!

School Counsellor's Message

Viktor Frnkl once said, "Those who have a 'why' to live, can bear with almost any 'how'."

What individuals are missing today isn't anything else but a purpose to strive for. Over the past decade, I have had the chance to ask thousands of students what they think about school. I've found that the vast majority of them generally feel one of the two ways: disengaged or incredibly pressurised. Students who show a sense of purpose have a deeply developed intrinsic motivation to achieve a goal or take part in an activity. This means they are not motivated to achieve something simply because they can, because it is hard, or because they get rewarded or recognized for it. Rather, they do it because they have a deep internal interest in pursuing it—and derive pleasure from the process. Therefore, the system of education should work as a catalyst in making each child a balanced human being having his core strengths embedded in the learning experiences emanating from our rich socio-cultural roots. In this pursuit of excellence, I appreciate our parent fraternity for supporting the school in every aspect. I also laud the relentless efforts of our teachers for giving their best in bringing out the best in each child. But I would exhort the students to be always modest, humble and disciplined, while being ready to expand the horizons of their knowledge and skills by dreaming big and working hard.

The activity concluded with an interactive session on- why do birds migrate?, Types of migration, Distances travelled by these birds, what triggers migration, Migration hazards & Importance of world migratory bird's day.

« La semaine de la langue Française » (French week)

French Week was celebrated in Delhi International School between 8 July 2016 – 14 July 2016 with fun, frolic, flair and fervency. Students learning French from classes V-X enthusiastically participated in a plethora of competitions. In the collage making competition, teams artistically presented France. However, fancy dress competition was an opportunity for them to represent their favorite French personality, monument or dish etc. In the poem recitation competition, Dishons recited famous French poems & rhymes. Students of class IX & X wrote essays on consumer rights in France. The power point presentation competition on the last day gave students the chance to speak about French revolution and Bastille Day. Indeed; it was a week-long extravaganza to promote cross cultural knowledge amongst students in an interesting manner.

But on July 14, we postponed our joy of celebrating the National day of France (Bastille Day) and rather paid homage to terror attack victims of Nice through French prayer "Notre Père" sung by little Dishons of class V

HOTCH POTCH COLOUR DAY

All little dishons of kindergarten enjoyed "HOTCH POTCH COLOUR DAY ACTIVITY" in their respective classes from 11 July to 15 July. They learnt about secondary colors, how to hold paint brushes, how to mix two colours. Like Red + white = pink, yellow + blue = green, Red + blue = purple. With these new colors; they painted butterflies, flowers & trees. That was a good experience to the tiny-tots & they enjoyed a lot through these activities.

My Mother

'M' stands for mother,
I can never get another.
Like a nurse, she nurses me,
Like a teacher she teaches me.
For every small thing she praises me,
On my mistakes she guides me.
She cares for me, she loves me,
She always stands by me
She is my best friend
That's why mother is not just a word,
But a world for me.
