- Feeling good about yourself - neat hair, trimmed nails, clean clothes etc.
- Feeling proud of what you can do - shoe laces properly tied, keeping tiffin-box properly in the bag, helping others etc.
- Believe in yourself, even when you don't succeed at first - packing bags, keeping things in cubicles, eating lunch etc.
- Identifying your own good qualities such as being kind or capable - sharing, speaking truth and being honest etc.
- Feeling loved and respected.
- Accept yourself even when you make mistakes.

Project of the month - I can! I will!

Self-discipline is the companion of willpower. It gives us the stamina to persevere through whatever we encounter. It gives us the strength to withstand hardships and difficulties, whether physical, emotional or mental. Self-discipline enables us to reject immediate satisfaction, pleasure or comfort, to gain something better. However, we must recognize that it will always require great effort and time.

My Super powers are:

- I am strong-
- I am beautiful
- I am helpful
- I am kind
